Texas Cauble Family to Meet for Fourth Reunion

Reunion Set for 19-21 July 1991

Reserve the dates 19 - 21 July for the Cauble reunion. This will be a special meeting because the place and activities are special. This year descendants will meet in Tyler County, Texas, at Peach Tree Village. Camp Ta-Ku-La, a Christian retreat center located two miles north of Chester, Texas, on Farm Road 2097 and .5 mile south of Historic Peter Cauble House and Cemetery, is the site selected by the planning committee.

The price for lodging and food is modest—$6 per meal and $6 per night for each person. The dorms are segregated by sex—all males in one building, all females in another. Attendees must bring own bedding and linen. Sleeping bags will work well.

If you feel that you are not up to camp life, The Woodville Inn is located in Woodville only fifteen miles away. The camp has hookups for two RVs and may have two more by summer. An additional number of RVs which need only electricity can be accommodated.

A swimming pool is available. Parents must supervise children since a certified lifeguard costs $100. The camp has video game room and volleyball and baseball facilities. Tournaments are planned. If your child has ever been bored at family reunions before, he will not complain this year!

On Saturday, the Peter Cauble House and grounds will be open to the Cauble family. Descendants of Peter Cauble and of Valentine Burch plan to place special markers at the graves in the Cauble-Burch Cemetery. Please attend.

The restored Historic Peter Cauble House at Peach Tree Village, Tyler County, Texas, built by the Cauble family in the 1830s, will be open for Cauble descendants to visit at the reunion this summer. Although it was originally built as a log house, it was later covered in clapboard and has been restored to that condition with a metal roof.

Reunion registration fee is $5 per family. Pre-registration will be appreciated, although one need not send money. Declaring one's intent is all that is needed. This will help in planning.

The distance is great for some descendants who live in far West Texas; however, the distance was short for many descendants last year and attendance was not high. It is hoped that this location will appeal to all Cauble descendants and that many will attend.

A newsletter subscription will be included with your registration fee.

Written Interview

Dear Julia,

In about your third letter back, you said you were interested in finding out what I may know of the Fisher County Caubles. I can't tell you much that you don't already know. My family lived in Royston for about a year when I was about 4 or 5 years old (My gosh—that was 70 years ago). Anyway, I remember that my father had two double cousins living there at the time. They were Cousin Jim and Cousin Frank. Cousin Jim lived on a farm, as I recall it was west of town, and Cousin Frank lived in town near where we lived.

Cousin Jim's farm was a fun place for me to visit. I especially enjoyed palling around with his youngest son, Lois. He was several years older, but seemed to like me to come over and go duck hunting with him. Cousin Jim would only give him three shot gun shells and would expect him to bring home three ducks. One trip he got five ducks with the three shells, twice killing two ducks with one shell. I remember Cousin Jim had several greyhound dogs. It was fun to watch them chase rabbits. I can't remember much about anyone else in his family, except I know there were two older girls. I remember that Cousin Frank had a family but I don't recall much about them.

I do know that the cousins in Royston were double cousins because my dad's father and your Grandfather Jim's father were brothers and my dad's mother and your [great] Grandmother Cauble were sisters [Hardins].

Please keep in touch,

Andy Cauble [Andrew Daniel Cauble H111]

D B Cobble	2 [yards] Swiss muslin	62

[Editor's note: It is assumed that the amounts are in cents. That is, forty-one yards of bedticking sold for $.19 per yard for a total of $7.79. Isaac Butler Cauble [D B Cobble] appears to have liked shopping since he purchased several items and some of them were luxury items ("bunch of silk" and "Swiss muslin"). Why would twenty-year-old James Cauble pay $.80 for a silk handkerchief? It must have been a gift for a girl friend [he married in 1857]. Remember that prices in the 1850s were more than twenty times less than 1991 prices, making the $.80 handkerchief worth more than $16.00 today.]

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

25 Jan 1991

Dear Julia,

The George Clinton Cauble you mentioned in your letter who died in Gainesville, Texas, 31 July 1923, was my father. He was born 19 August 1896. He died at age 26 years and left a young widow and two small children. We were returning from a vacation in Oklahoma when he took ill with severe stomach cramps. We got to Henrietta, Oklahoma, a small town, and found a doctor. He thought it was a stomachache and gave him a strong laxative. He got worse and we took a train to Gainesville, TX, to a hospital and he died a few days later.

We had a wonderful mother and with help of Grandma and Grandpa Cauble she got us raised. My grandparents didn't have a daughter they loved any more than they did my mother and she loved them the same way. When J. D. and I were grown my mother remarried—on her 40th birthday.

Love from your cousin,

Jewel Cauble Anderson C4242, 502 Scott Drive, Big Spring, TX 79720

Dear Cousin Jewel,

Thank you for this poignant letter. This is the kind of information Cauble family researchers are attempting to record. We will be looking for you again at our reunion. -- Editor

Letter to the Editor:

I want to take a moment to thank you for your hard work and dedication in producing this newsletter. Your readers do not realize how much time you must commit to researching, compiling editing, and mailing our newsletter ...I know you are too modest to print this...I am enclosing my $2.00 for membership since I was unable to attend the reunion.

Cauble Descendant Who Wishes to Remain Anonymous

Hi, 12 Mar 1991

I'm a Texas Cauble. Charles Monroe Cauble was my paternal great grand-father...The old Cauble house [which belonged to Charles Monroe and Juriah Vines Cauble] here in Albany.....is ninety-nine years old, Victorian, two-story, and in very sad shape, but we love it. My father grew up in it and I, myself, have many fond memories of the house. I bought it last August. It is my hope, and that of my children, to restore the house to its former beauty, to secure it so that it never again leaves our family. To restore and place a medallion on it would be a sort of gift to our Texas family ... "All" we need to get this done is a lot of time, money, and prayers. Sincerely, Ann Cauble Lenhart, P. O. Box 1606, Albany, Texas 76430

Dear Cousin Ann,

We are proud of you for undertaking such a worthy project. Historical restoration and preservation are good ways to memorialize our ancestors. Perhaps, we Caubles could organize our talents and hands to offer you some physical help. Good luck and God bless. — Editor

Queries

Who was Laura Cauble, who married J. W. Revill on 22 February 1903 in Eastland County, Texas? What Cauble families, other than Peter Cauble, Jr., and James Monroe Cauble, lived in that area in 1903?

Peter Cauble, Jr. (1829 Alabama-before 1870 Texas) married Nancy Ann Curtis (24 October 1821 Louisiana-unknown) 23 May 1849 in Tyler County, Texas. Is this Nancy Ann Curtis the same Nancy Curtis who was a daughter of Zilpha Byrd and James Curtis of St. Landry Parish, Louisiana? I will be grateful for any help with this family.

Contact: Julia Cauble Smith, 2905 Sentinel, Midland, TX 79701 (915/697-4955)

I am searching for the family of Lethia Burnett, who married William C. Cauble (1852-1877), son of Sarah E. Green and Isaac Butler Cauble, about 1870 probably in Hill County, Texas. She was listed on the 1880 census at Aquilla, Hill County, Texas, as a widow with two sons, Rockdale, 5, and Alde, 3. Who were the parents of Lethia? Where did Lethia die? Where is she buried?

Contact: Richard C. Cauble, 1603 Hodges, Midland, TX 79701 (915/683-6917)

Which Peter Cauble married Sarah E. Hulet on 25 December 1862 in Polk County, Texas? Peter Cauble, Jr., was living on 17 December 1856, when he signed a deed, and dead by 25 February 1870, when Peter Cauble, Sr., signed his will. Did the couple divorce?

Who was Sara Cauble who died 11 December 1932 in Shackelford County, Texas?

Where does Joseph Mansfield Cauble (1922-1925) fit in the Joseph Mansfield Cauble H13 family?

On 12 January 1895 Carrie Cauble married Robert Hagy in Wichita County, Texas. If you can identify this Carrie Cauble, please contact the editor.
