Site of Reunion

The site of the meeting is located one mile south of Roby on the east side of State Highway 70 at the bridge over Plum Branch of Cottonwood Creek. The location is called Cottonwood RV Park. Although the building is some distance from the highway, there is a sign to mark the park. The building is air-conditioned and comfortable.

Lodging

Full hookups for RVs are $10 per night. Motels are available in the area. In Roby, Blue Haven Motel is clean and a double-occupancy room costs $25 per night. Call 915/776-2128 for reservations.

In Sweetwater, call the following numbers for reservations:

Holiday Inn	915/236-6887
Motel 6	915/235-4387
Ranch House	915/236-6341
Sunday House	915/235-4853

Saturday Is The Big Day!

Everyone is encouraged to come for all of the reunion, but Saturday is the big day. [The full program for the weekend is found on page 3.] After Saturday breakfast there will be games [with prizes] for children and adults. Then comes a country dinner [or lunch], a dessert contest, and a short business meeting. Next, the auctioneers take the floor and the entertainment begins. Each attendee should bring handcrafted or nostalgic items for the auction. Last year those objects were delightful and prized.

Cauble Fund

Money raised from the auction, as well as from the sales of our cookbook, stationery, t-shirts, caps, and quilt, goes to the Cauble Fund for cemeteries upkeep, our reunions, and repairs to the historic Peter Cauble House.

Reserve your meals, commemorative t-shirt, and cap. Mail the form on page 10.
